Opening 2011-2012

Welcome to the 2011-2012 school year at Queen Anne's County High School! I hope that each of you have had the opportunity to relax and enjoy your time away. After twenty-seven years in education, the beginning of a new school year is still an exciting time to me.

QACHS is an uniquely wonderful institution, made so by the dedication and talents of our faculty, staff, students and parents. Building on the records and traditions from the past, I am excited about the opportunities in front of us for the coming school year. We have established such a strong program for our students and each year is another step in the right direction to making remarkable things happen!

It amazes me every year how quickly the summer seems to fly by. Our staff returns on August 24, 2011 to begin preparing for our students. I truly believe QACHS is the best place to be and I consider myself very fortunate to work with such an outstanding group of educational professionals, students, and parents.

Below are some important dates for your planning. I am looking forward to seeing you as we begin and throughout the 2011-2012 school year!

Welcome Back!
